WANT MORE MONEY FOR THE SCHOOLS

Burrus Declares in Favor of Compulsory Education.

A SOLUTION OF ILLS.

Would Foster Negro and Mountain Education—State to Assume Burden of Retirement Fund.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 28.—Two thousand teachers and educators from all portions of the State, not including local registrations, attended the numerous conferences held under the auspices of the Virginia Educational Conference here yesterday, there being no less than thirty departmental meetings.

The crowning event came last night, in a masterly address by Congressman James H. Aswell, of Louisiana, whose subject was "Mastery in Education." The address was delivered before the State Teachers' Association at Court Street Methodist Church, where nearly 2,000 people crowded in to hear him, and many were denied admission for lack of room.

Today the visitors went to the Randolph-Macon Woman's College to be entertained by the students.

Dr. Julian A. Burrus, of Harrisonburg, president of the State Teachers' Association, who presided last night, made his annual report, saying at the start that he did not expect all in his audience to agree with him. He referred to the immense power of the association, which he predicts will grow larger in the future. The organization was shown to rank high among such organizations of the State, and its financial condition is good. A work of the past year was to keep in touch with local associations. He complimented the work of Secretary Woolfolk and of Treasurer Guy [redacted]ss reported that the ten [redacted]al districts are all well organized and under direction of vice-presidents.

The report suggested that the present executive committee be made a board of directors.

That the president, secretary and treasurer be made the executive committee to meet monthly.

That the proceedings of the co-operative bodies in annual meetings be published and distributed to the members and that a bulletin be provided for quarterly.

That the association work with other State associations for national good, and that the association have a platform of principles affecting educational matters of the State.

Dr. Burruss thought the organization should stand for everything for the good of the children. Helpful athletics should not be limited to the cities and towns. Continued improvement of health of the children and betterment of the school grounds should be sought.

Dr. Burruss's declaration for compulsory education was applauded, and he declared that when the children are forced into the schools ill conditions in the buildings will be driven out. He pleaded for public funds for the kindergarten. He favored home work with credit for it in the schools and for vocational t[redacted]ing with supervision by technically trained experts. He said Virginia should foster negro and mountain schools, the former for the protection of the white race. The schools should be the social centre for the community. He pleaded for a higher standard in teaching, the professional teacher being necessary to raising of the vocation to a profession.

Dr. Burruss complimented the present county superintendents, but he thought these officers should possess professional teachers' certificates, and have at least a year or two of experience, this latter statment being applauded. To hold the teachers, he said, the association should work for increasel pay, especially with the rural teacher. Professionally-trained teachers, he thought, would perhaps remedy this in time.

The teachers retirement fund was [redacted] the President thought the fund ought to be increased with the whole support from the State. He favored equal opportunities for higher education for women, favoring co-education at the State's highest institution, and for a school technically to train women coordinate in training with those for men though teaching vocations needed by women.

He thought that each school board of the State should have at least one woman in its membership, while he favored the appointment of women as division superintendents. He thought this would aid the school.

Dr. Buruss craved the co-operation of the teachers for the State Board of Education, and the State superintendent, saying the teachers should be slow to criticize, and should strive to make their work less difficult, commend the good and push it along.

More than twenty different departmental meetings were held during the morning, but there were no sessions during the afternoon, many of the visitors going to the football game or to the theatre.

The school trustees adopted a resolution asking the General Assembly for increased school appropriations of $40,000 annually, declaring for better paid teachers and longer terms.

The teachers' association has elected the following officers:

President, W. H. Keister, of Harrisonburg; vice presidents, R. J. W. Wray, F. H. Martin, C. W. Mascon, Dr. S. C. Mitchell, and Dr. J. W. Wayland; secretary, E. C. Glass; treausrer, Miss Rose Dexter.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

E. Graham Wilson, whose trial for alleged assault upon Miss Kate Turner has been in progress for more than a week, at Charlestown, W. Va., has been found guilty. The jury recommended that Wilson be confined in the penitentiary, which saves him from hanging, as under the law the court has no alternative when a verdict of guilty is without recommendation. Wilson's attorney's filed notice of appeal. If the appeal is not granted, the case will be appealed to the Supreme Court of Appeals. Wilson, who is a wealthy farmer, showed no signs of emotion when the verdict was read.

On the second anniversary of his wife's death Wm A. Griswold, 71 years old, a watchman in the government printing office, Washington, was killed by an automobile last night as he was going to his work. Knocked down at F and P streets northeast, he died an hour later.

Lincoln Beachey, the aviator looped the loop twice in the air above North Island near San Diego, Cal., yesterday. The feat was accomplished apparently with ease. Starting at a height of 2,500 feet, Beachey dropped straight downward into the first loop and immediately again turned into the second, landing afterward. At no time, seemingly, was there any loss of control, nor did he experience any difficulty.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY.

Negroes Who Sent Blackhand Letters Refused Bail.

Charles Tines and Edward Black, both colored, charged with sending two black hand letters to T. E. Maddox, of Marshall, Fauquier county, were given a preliminary hearing this morning before U. S. Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett. The men are charged with having written Mr Maddox that unless he placed $500 under a rock at the cross roads near Marshall they would burnu his house and buildings. The men were arrested on Tuesday by U. S. Marshall Schoeni.

The evidence this morning showed that the writers of the first letter failing to receive $500, sent a second letter in which they stated they would be satisfied with $50, but that should Mr. Maddox refuse to respond they would burn his house and kill him.

Commissioner Garnett under Section 215 of the criminal code refuesd bail and issued a final mittimus directing that the negroes be confined in jail until the next term of the United States District Court in January. They were represented by Robinson Moncure.

DIED—At his residence, 611 Prince street, JAMES MIDDLETON WHITE. Funeral Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence. Friends and relatives invited. Interment private.

CONDITIONS IN OIL DISTRICTS

Elements of Destruction Drawing Close About Dictator Huerta.

DOWNFALL IMMINENT.

Trains Dynamited and Many Killed—Ciudad Victoria Destroyed by Rebels—Monroe Doctrine.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Secretary of State Bryan received this morning from John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico, and from Rear Admiral Fletcher, commanding the United States naval squadron in the Gulf, detailed descriptions of conditions prevailing in the oil districts of Tuxpam and Tampico. The reports were at once taken to the White House by Mr. Bryan.

The Mexican rebels are now investing the territory in the vicinity of both towns, and it has been feared that serious damage would result to foreign property, and, perhaps to foreign lives, if the rebels carried out their threats of firing the oil tanks. These oil propertes represent an investment of $50,000,000, half of which is American and the balance largely English.

A summary of the Mexican situation shows that the tentacles of disaster are drawing close about Dictator Huerta, and that his downfall is imminent.

Following the deceisive rebel victory at Jusrez, General Villareal's revolutionary army routed the federal forces under General Navarette at La Cruz. Tuxpam, too, it was reported, has fallen into the hands of the Carranzistas.

Probably a greater battle than that of Juarez will be fought at Chihuahua within a few days. The victorious General Villa announced yesterday that he would attack the latter city with 12,000 men as soon as he could provision his troops. For this purpose thousands of dollar's worth of supplies have been taken to Juarez from the United States.

General Carranza has announced that he would remove his headquarters to the State of Chihuahua. Thus the constitutional army is drawing close to Mexico City, the capital and the last stronghold of Huerta.

A plan of amplifying the Monroe doctrine so as to establish an eternal bond of peace among the American republics was presented yesterday to the government by Sidney A. Witherbee, of New York. It has the endorsement of Andrew Carnegie.

Mexico City, Nov. 28.—A troop train carrying 300 federals was blown by dynamite this afternoon near La Ventura, on the National Railway, south of Saltillo. The rebels are said to have shot and killed every one of the soldiers who escaped the explosion. About 100 women, known as Saidaderos, who were on the train, were also killed, as were several children. The only person to escape was a railway telegraph repair man.

Mexlico City, Nov. 28.—Private advices from a thoroughly reliable source say that Ciudad Victoria, capital of the State of Tampulipas, was absolutely destroyed by the rebels two days ago. Practically nothing was left of the city after the rebels had pillaged and burned it. General Rabago, commander of the federal garrison, finding it impossible to defend the place withdrew his troops to the town of Tula, after suffering heavy losses.

ALL WANTED A PART.

Children of Protestant and Catholic Schools Unite in Aiding Children's Home.

Among the contributor's to the Children's Home yesterday were the scholars of the public school's of this city, St. Mary's Academy and the Del Ray School. The appeal was nobly responded by scholars in every room of Washington and Lee schools.

DEATH NOTICE.

Mrs. Emily Davis died today at 12:5, at her home, 911 Prince street, aged 78 years. Funeral arrangements [redacted] the [redacted] employed.

DEATH OF J. M. WHITE.

Old and Well-Known Citizen Passes Away at An Early Hour This Morning.

J. M. White a well-known and popular Alexandrian, died at his home, 611 Prince street, at an early hour this morning. The deceased was 67 years old, he having been born October 30, 1846. He was a son of the late Thomas and Marion W. White.

The subject of this notice entered the dry goods business in early life, and over 40 years ago was associated with the late Robert L. Wood, who conducted business at the southeast corner of King and Fairfax streets. He later became associated with Tackett and Marshall at the northeast corner of King and Pitt Sts. About twelve years ago Mr. White's eyesight, began to fail, since which time he has been unable to enter into active business career.

He held two public positions during his life. He was at one time a member of the City Council from the Fourth Ward, and was also a member of the City Electoral Board.

He leaves a widow, Mrs. Ada White (nee Mc Graw), and a son, Mr. Harrie White. He is also survived by a brother, Mr. Thomas W. White, and a sister, Miss Elizabeth White.

The funeral will take place on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. L. Allison, of the Second Presbyterian church, and the interment will be in St. Paul's Church cemetery.

TWO GREAT PERFORMANCES.

Associated Players to Give Benefits on Monday and Tuesday.

In promising through the press that a certain thing is to be done, it it well to give something better than advertised. The fakir may laud his goods to the skies, and catch an unsuspecting public, but an organization of home talent, which is compelled to produce the results, has no chance to escape the criticism of the people. This is the strong point of the Associated Players. All of the members of the company are well known. All of them responsible. Most of them men of affairs and the remainder engaged in the business pursuits of life. For self protection they must make good. Special features in connection with this, their greatest production, will be "Griffo," a mimic and the afterpiece will be the Coontown Musicateers," a military production The company has labored hard and the people may expect something of a top notch order. The first night as advertised, will be for the benefit of the Alexandria Motor Boat Club and the second for the Alexandria Lodge of Elks.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Interlocutor, Walter U. Varney.

End Men—Harry Fleischmann, Bernard Hamilton, Frank Smith, Fritz Birrell, J. Fred Birrell and George Reynolds.

Chorus and Soloists—Hunt Russell, Dave Robey, J. Cox, H. E. Cheshire, Wm. Patterson, C. E. Wilkins, L. J. Meade, W. M. Howard, Leonard Cheshire, A. Waters R. L. Finks, C. W. Sutton, W. E. Spofford, E. Winsor, Alex. Doniphan, M. Haynes, Forest Birrell, J. Arnold, Richard Green, Lewis Davis, Clayton Bowman, T. H. Henshaw, P. T. Nagel.

Musical Director, Raymond Reeves.

The Indian Guard Band, consisting of 25 members, will take part in the program.

CRIPPLED CARDINALS WIN.

Alexandria Football Team Trims Fort Myer Eleven, 6 to 0.

The Cardinal Athletic Club football team defeated the strong Fort Myer post team yesterday in the Alexandria Baseball Park, 6 to 0. The game was an excellent one, and the Cardinal substitutes who were in the line-up kept the heavy soldier eleven busy throughout the contest.

Frank Cain, late expert in the art of handling the long distance guns in the United States army at Fort Hunt, Va., is now a member of the Cardinals, and played a fine game at left tackle.

The "Soldier Sons of Uncle Sam," though defeated, fought hard at all times and tried its best to score, but when they neared their goal line the Cardinals would tighten up and prevent them from scoring.

The stars of the contest are hard to judge as the team played well together. Nalle at right half and R. Wanzer at left half, played a star game.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE W. W. FINLEY

Imposing Ceremonies at St. John's Church, Washington.

ROAD AT A STANDSTILL

Railway Magnates Honorary Pallbearers—Body Borne by Six Colored Porters.

Washington, Nov. 28.—While a saddened multitude gathered in and about St. John's Episcopal church at 11 o'clock this morning to pay its last respects to William W. Finley, president of the Southern Railway Company, every wheel on the railway system and its subsiduary lines was brought to a standstill for five minutes. From Washington to the Gulf there was a complete rest for that space on every mile of trackage.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of historic St. John's.

At 10:15 o'clock the honorary pallbearers gathered at the Finley home, 221 R street northwest, for private funeral services which were attended only by members of the family and close friends.

The honorary pall-bearers were: Col. A. B. Andrews, first vice-president and a director of the Southern; Geo. F. Baker, a voting trustee; Jas. J. Hill, former president and chairman of the board of the Greate Northern; Charles Steele, former Judge E. H. Gray, of the United States Steel Corporation; Fairfax Harrison, Adrian Iselin, and George F. Baker, Jr., directors of the Southern; Francis Lynde Stetson, general counsel at New York, Judge Alexander P. Humphrey, general counsel at Louisville; Alfred P. Thom, general counsel at Washington; J. M. Culp, T. C. Powell, Henry B. Spencer, E. H. Coapman, and R. D. Lankford, vice-presidents of the Southern; R. V. Taylor, vice-president and general manager of the Mobile and Ohio; John B. Munson, vice- president and general manager of the George Southern and Florida; H. C. Ansley, treasurer of the Southern; A. H. Plant, comptroller of the Southern, and A. C. Downing and Leonard M. Levering, friends of Mr. Finley.

Immediately after the private services the family drove to the church, where public services were held. Hundreds of people packed the interior of St. John's Church at the Avenue of Presidents and I street, and hundreds more were forced to watch the procession from the outside.

Officers and employes of Southern Railway and affiliated lines met at the Southern general offices at 1300 Pennsylvania Avenue northwest, at 10:30 o'clock and attended the services in a body. They were seated in a separate section, by ushers who were selected from the servce of the Southern.

Mr. Finley's body was borne by six colored porters, long in the service of the Southern. Immediately after the close of the service the funeral procession left the church for Oak Hill cemetery, the place of interment. The procession included over 50 carriages, and was one of the most important gatherings of railroad men seen here for months.

Among the relatives, friends and associates of Mr. Finley rode ten old retainers of the Finley family. They rode in special carriages with the chief mourners.

SPEED BOAT SINKS.

Small Craft in Tow is Swamped by Passing Navy Yard Vessel.

A 22-foot speed boat, owned by N. B. Walcott of Washington, was sunk yesterday afternoon with all its equipment when a navy yard boat passed the small craft, swamping it under the swell.

The speedboat was not occupied, being in tow of the tug "Charles O. Taylor. Mr. Walcott had abandoned it because of the rough waters. The accident occurred in front of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Works.

This is the second boat which Mr. Walcott has lost in a similar manner.

FOOTPADS AFTER PAYNE.

Game Warden of Fairfax County has Thrilling Adventure.

A. J. Payne, the energetic Game Warden of Fairfax county, who is a terror to would-be Nimrods when caught ganning out of season, had an exciting experience between 6 and 7 o'clock last night at the foot of Gum Spring Hill. Payne was riding a horse and the animal shield twice. When the rider endeavored to ascertain the cause he saw a man attempting to seize the bridle. The warden drew his pistol and discharged the weapon at the man who started to run. He at the same time saw another man run. Payne is satisfied he placed a .38 ball into the first man he saw and he offers a reward of ten dollars to any person who will succeed in identifying his assailant or assailants.

He believes the man came to this city for surgical treatment, and that some physician of Alexandria can aid him in capturing the footpad.

The school children became interested in sending gifts to the two institutions, and nearly every child in Alexandria and surrounding towns contributed their mite.

At the Episcopal Church services one half of the contribution went to the Alexandria Hospital, and at the Union Thanksgiving services the collection was given to the Children's Home. The inmates of the city almshouse and the city jail were served a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner.

ANOTHER BOLD ROBBERY

Three Cars Consigned to Swift and Co., Pillaged in a Month--Thieves Escape

Although many detectives and special railway agents are in Alexandria investigating the large number of car robberies which have occurred there recently, and despite the fact that a sensational raid was made on a well-known saloon last week and several carloads of stolen goods recovered and four men arrested who are now in the city jail awaiting trial on next Monday, another daring car robbery took place Wednesday night in the very heart of the city. For the third time in a month a car consigned to Swift and Company, was opened and a quantity of provisions stolen. Among the articles missing are 60 pounds of beef, two crates of eggs and a quantity of butter. The car was parked on Union street, near the corner of Prince street, in front of the Swift warehouse. The robbery occurred between 11:30 and 12 o'clock. Policeman Kern passed the car at 11:30 and saw that the lock was intact. At 12 o'clock Policeman Norris and Young found that the car was open and the lock gone.

The police have made every effort to recover the goods but have been unsuccessful It is believed that the thieves used a boat in transporting the goods from the wharf of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Co., which is a half square distant from the Swift warehouse.

Falls Into a Bonfire.

New York, Nov. 28.—Rigged out in dress belonging to his big sister John Sonwell, six, was playing with fifteen companions around a bonfire in a vacant lot at 177th street and the Boulevard yesterday afternoon, and fell into the flames.

Lieut. Stapleton, of the fire department, who happened to be passing wrapped the boy in his overcoat, putting out the flames, but the lad was reported dying in Fordham Hospital today.

Kate Siarbalise, five years old, who on Wednesday suffered from burns while playing around a bonfire, died yesterday.

Doctor Dragged to Death.

Orange, Va., Nov. 28.—Dr. J. T. Frazer was found dead a day or two ago on a road near here. His horse, which was young, and wild was found entangled in a wire fence, with the wreck of the buggy still hitched. From the appearance of the body it is supposed that the horse became unmanageable and that Dr. Frazer was thrown from the buggy and dragged to death. He was a graduate of the University College of Medicine of Richmond and had practiced his profession for ten years at Danton. He leaves a widow and three small children.

Accused Acquitted.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 28.—John Biasina, under indictment for a capital offense against his niece, Marie Biasina, 27 years old was acquitted late Wednesday night by a jury in the Hustings Court, which brought in a verdict of not guilty within five minutes after being given the case.

Basinia, who is a native of Austria-Hungary was arrested last May at the instance of C. L. Droste, Austro-Hungarian counsel in this city, with whom complaint had been registered against the defendant's conduct toward his niece. The Hustings Court grand jury returned a true bill against him, and his trial on the charge followed.

Dr. Charles M. Buckley, a dentist, living at 602 Pennsylvania Avenue southeast, Washington, was instantly killed yesterday through the accidental discharge of a shot gun held by a companion while rabbit hunting near Forestville, Md. The body was turned over to the Forestville authorities, and an inquest will be held there today.

Five East Indian strikers were killed in battle with mounted police near Durban yesterday. The Indians were destroying property when the mounted police tried to disperse them.

Sporadic outbursts of the lawlessness in the Cabin Creek county, W. Va., since thhe treaty of peace was signed by coal operators and miners five months ago, have kept Sheriff Bonnerhill and a large force of deputies in the mountains, and culminated yesterday in the arrest of five men charged with "shooting up" the little mining village of Dry Branch last Sunday. Charles Williams, alleged to be the leader; Robert Hostene, Russell Hodge, Carl Klusk, and Boyle Adkins were placed in jail at Charleston for a hearing December 9.

THE SHORT AND SIMPLE ANNALS OF THE POOR.

The forerunner of the Great Teacher, while answering questions of a miscellaneous gathering at the river Jordan, commanded those having two coats to impart to those having none, and those having food to do likewise. The spirit of this was manifest yesterday in many places in Alexandria. The friends of the Children's Home remembered the little ones, and the contributions toward that worthy institution were liberal. Over one hundred children were able to partake of Thanksgiving cheer by the thoughtfulness of the Red Men. While the "shut-ins" at the alms house enjoyed luxuries of the season also.

Apart from those features of the day, friends of the Alexandria Hospital remembered that institution by sending gifts.

In addition to these public acts many people in a quiet manner sent substantial reminders of the season to private homes, white and colored. These kindly acts were performed in the true spirit, the left hand not being cognizant of what the right was doing.

The weather was dismal, rainy and cold, and those surprises arriving as they did at an opportune time were received with joy in households where the wolf is not always far away.

There is always much for which we should be thankful, and there is no better way to express our appreciation of blessings than remembering a class always with us.

It is to be hoped that the spirit manifested yesterday may become more in evidence as time goes on.

AGAIN ENDORSES MONROE DOCTRINE.

Viscount Haldane, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, at the Thanksgiving dinner of the American Society in London yesterday endorsed the Monroe doctrine. This is not the first time this has been done by members of the British cabinet, and the utterances of Viscount Haldane at this time, when the United States is disturbed over conditions in Mexico, are significant.

In the early history of the United States this doctrine was sneered at in Europe. A German comic sheet a few years ago represented the Monroe doctrine as a scarecrow wearing spectacles around which the German eagle was flying. The bird, however, did not attempt to light, although it was being made to say by the artist that the effigy had no terrors for it.

During the civil war France took advantage of prevailing conditions and set Maxmilian upon the throne of Mexico. Later the Mexicans ousted the invaders and captured Maxmilian. He was condemned to be shot and France left him to his fate rather than bring on trouble with the United States by attempting to rescue him.

BLACKHANDERS IN VIRGINIA.

Two negroes were before U. S. Commissioner Garnett in this city today to answer for sending blackhand letters to a resident in Fauquier county demanding $500 under pain of being murdered and having his house burned if he refused to place the money under a gate. They were sent on to the United States Court, having been refused bail.

A storekeeper in Danville has also received a letter from an unknown correspondent demanding money. The writer in Danville, however, is dealing on a larger scale. He demands $1500. The police, so far, have been unable to identify the party who sent the letter.

The sending of black hand letters was for a long time confined to the larger cities, and the intended victims were of foreign extraction who had by their industry accumulated money which was demanded by their fellow-countrymen.

The Old Dominion has already some warts upon the body politic. It is hoped that those persons who are attempting to perpetrate such outrages upon Virginia may be speedily apprehended and dealt with acording to law.

HOW TO AVOID COLD WEATHER DISEASES.

To prevent cold weather diseases put your body into proper healthy condition to successfully resist them. Colds, grippe, bronchitis, pneumonia, catarrh, typhoid fever, rheumatism and other ailments may be escaped in most cases, if this is done. Build up your health and strength—your nerves and blood and entire body—into such shape that you can count on good health all during the winter months—by taking Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion, the ideal blood, nerve and body builder.

This is a remarkable medicine, but a common-sense one. It doesn't stimulate. So-called "tonics" that stimulate give you no permanent relief; but leave you worse off than before. Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion contains none of these harmful stimulating ingredients, such as alcohol and dangerous habit-forming drugs. Its great benefit to you is through its real nerve and blood and body-building effects. Its merit does not rest on making you feel better for a few minutes at a time after taking it, but on making you feel better as a result of making you well.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is the ideal blood and nerve-food tonic. You who are weak and run down, and you who are apparently well now, but are liable to suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated, or debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion—king of the celebrated Rexall Remedies—is for freedom of sickness of you and your family. You'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its pleasant taste its strengthening, invigorating, building-up, disease-preventing effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. Wm. P. Had Serious Lung Trouble—Now Well

Sufferers from Lung Trouble are often misled in the belief that nothing will save them. Rest, fresh air, wholesome food and regularity in habits do much in aiding to restore health, but something else is needed. Many people who have taken Eckman's Alterative have testified that it was this medicine which restored them to health. Read this:—

Weldon, Ill.

"Gentlemen: Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia, which developed into Lung Trouble. In February, 1905, I went to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 103 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive. On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Today I weigh 158 pounds, am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator."

(Affidavit) ARTHUR WEBB.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

RACE FOR SPEAKERSHIP.

Hugh A. White Throws Hat In Ring With Those of Williams and Cox.

Richmond, Va. Nov. 28.—Delegate Hugh A. White, of Rockbridge, was a visitor at the capital this week. Mr. White referred confidently to his chances in the speakership contest saying that he had many promises of support. As the presen situat on stands, the three candidates having assurances of support are Edwin P. Cox, of Richmond; Judge Mart n Williams, of Giles, and Mr. White. Several other candidates are mentioned as possibilities, but will be considered only in event of a deadlock be ween these three.

All three candidates have strong support, but no one claims a majority, and the fight will probably not be determined until he Democratic caucus held at the opening sessio

The enabling act is not an issue in this contest. The act will pass the House, as it has done on two former occasions, whatever may be its fate in the Senate. Judge Williams is favorable to the measure, and Mesars Cox and White are both opposed to it, preferring local option as a method of regulating the liquor traffic. That the fight is not being drawn on this line is shown by the fact that several active "dry" men are working for both Mr. Cox and Mr. White Delegate S. H. Love, of Lunenburg, one of the original dry men ,is a strong supporter of Mr. Cox.

FARMER SHOOTS NEIGHBOR.

They Met While Hunting and Resumed Old Quarrel.

Orange, Va., Nov. 28.—E. R. Meade and J. T. Webb, two farmers living on the line of Orange and Louisa counties met while hunting Wednesday and engaged in an altercation, which ended in Meade shooting Webb in the face and chest with a load of shot. The trouble was the result of a feud of six year's standing.

Sheriff Bond left for the scene of trouble as soon as the news of the shooting was received, but Meade came to Orange and gave himself up. Meade claims that Webb shot first and that he fired in self-defense. There were no witnesses to the shooting.

STRANGE CRIME IN BEDFORD.

While Husband Goes for Doctor to Attend Wife, House is Set on Fire.

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 28.—The partial report of a tragedy of a somewhat mysterious nature, which occurred Sunday night near Flint Hill or Good View, in Bedford county, was brought to this city a day or two ago by a resident of that county. One of the residents of the Good View neighborhood is Lounie Patterson, who recently moved there from the vicinity of Thaxton. On Sunday night Patterson appeared at the office of Dr. A. L. Thurman, of Chambliss-burg, and asked him to attend his wife, who, he said, was dying at their home. Dr. Thurman at once made arrangements to attend the case, and with Patterson started for the latter's home.

Before Dr. Thurman and Patterson had gone very far on their journey they were met by a man who informed them that the Patterson home was in flames. Dr. Thurman immediately had Dr. Richards, of Stewartsville, summoned, and then he and Patterson proceeded on their way. When they arrived at Patterson's home they found the house had burned to the ground, together with the entire contents, the fierceness of the flames being sufficient to set on fire a near-by chicken house, which was also destroyed with 200 chickens.

The daughter of Mr. Patterson met her father and the physician on their arrival and told them how she had been awakened by some noise some time after her father had left, and upon going downstairs had found the room adjoining that occupied by her mother on fire. She went into her mother's room at once and found her lying unconscious on the bed in a pool of blood with cuts on her face and breast. She dragged the unconscious form from the house, and with the assistance of the neighbors took the woman to the home of a man named Brown, who lived nearby.

The last reports received from her bedside indicated that she yet was unconscious, and the marks on her face and about her mouth were such as to indicate that poison had been used or the attempt had been made to use it.

Just what efforts have been made to unravel the mystery attending this tragic occurrence by the authorities of Bedford county Have not been learned, but the people of the vicinity of the crime are much wrought up over it, and no doubt some steps will be taken to get to the bottom of the affair.
